Friday 27th November, 4.30-5.20pm

Join us for a festive celebration as the Mayor of Kensington and Chelsea switches on the Christmas lights at Chelsea Theatre! Get into the spirit with free sweet treats and drinks and a festive performance from Chelsea Theatre's Beats and Elements group.

This year will be a particularly special event as the Mayor will also unveil the first portraits from our local heroes public art project. The portraits of local heroes voted in by our community will be displayed on the front of Chelsea Theatre.

Timings:
4.30-5pm: Community and guests meet for free mince pies, Basque cheesecakes from The Toll House, mulled wine, soft drinks
5-5.20pm: Light switch on, speeches, portraits unveiled, festive performance and sing-along

No need to book – this event is open to the public
