Book a 2pm performance

Get ready for CindeRahRahella – Rah Rah Theatre Company's hilarious and wonderfully unique take on the classic Cinderella story!

This fast-paced three-hander pantomime is packed with toe-tapping songs, comedy, dancing and plenty of audience participation. Expect all the traditional panto fun but with a distinctly Rah Rah twist, including an Elvis-inspired Fairy Godfather!

Fun, silly and hugely interactive, there's something for everyone, with plenty of chances to sing along, join in and become part of the action. Festive fun for all the family!

We're also delighted to be working with local community groups, who will be joining us for each performance, making every show at Chelsea Theatre unique and extra special.

About Rah Rah Theatre Company
Rah Rah Theatre Company has been creating and touring professional live theatre since 2001 and became a registered charity in 2017. For over 20 years, we've been passionate about making theatre fun, accessible and inclusive, bringing original productions to audiences across London and the surrounding areas.

At the heart of Rah Rah is a belief that live theatre should be for everyone. Our work is designed to bring people together, create shared experiences and make audiences feel part of the performance. To date, we have created and toured more than 60 original productions and performed at over 1,000 venues.
