

Dance-Capture-Chelsea:21

Paul Adlam, CEO of the Chelsea Theatre, invited choreographer Lea Anderson to create a dance project in the summer of 2021 with funding from RBKC.

Lea invited anyone with a dance they wanted to share to come and perform it in the specially created outdoor film studio and be filmed by a professional crew.

The result is a life-affirming and joyous collection of dances from all over the world generously donated by a broad range of extraordinary dancers of all ages, experience and backgrounds.
