

4-7 November, 8pm | Gala Night, Thursday 5 November

With a a 'Dad's Army' Piano Bar from 7pm

Join us for a momentous evening in aid of The Royal British Legion Veterans Enterprise and Chelsea Theatre, together with great tunes from yesteryear beforehand in the live piano bar.

Fernando Arrabal's Picnic on a Battlefield is a darkly comic and absurdist anti-war play, using humour and the ridiculous to explore the human cost and senselessness of conflict. The performance will be accompanied by a special 'Dad's Army' piano bar, with live music and favourite tunes from yesteryear before the show.

A special Gala Performance will also raise funds for Royal British Legion Veterans Enterprise and Chelsea Theatre. Tickets include a champagne reception in the bar beforehand.
