Friday 18 September, 7.30pm

The Chelsea Citizen presents PRESSURE: ALL-STARS by 2nd Quarter Productions.

After four sold-out editions of PRESSURE, the champions return for one final showdown.

PRESSURE is a night of competitive theatre where 20-minute plays go head-to-head and the audience decides the winner.

For the first time ever, we're bringing back the winning plays from our previous events to compete for the ultimate title. Four fan favourites. One champion. Who will be crowned the best of the best?

MOLLUSC: Two ex-girlfriends, who haven't seen each other since a tryst in a bathroom many years ago, run into each other in unexpected circumstances.

WHO THE FK IS CYNTHIA?: When her ex gets a new girlfriend, one woman's obsession with the stranger she's never met spirals into a darkly funny exploration of heartbreak, jealousy, and the stories we tell ourselves.

A BIG TIP: When a young professional visits a male escort for a formative sexual experience, their intertwined histories collide face first.

LOCKER: Three pigs walk into a changing room… Locker explores the dark underbelly of the Met Police, and what gets said when no one else is listening.

At the end of the night, YOU decide who wins. Cast your vote, crown the ultimate PRESSURE champion, and watch one play leave with the trophy, free drinks, and eternal bragging rights.

Be there. Decide the winner. Feel the PRESSURE.

BOOK