The Chelsea Theatre is committed to recruit, retain and develop a workforce that reflects the diverse communities that we serve. The organisation will continually strive to encourage and manage diversity through the development and value of positive policies to promote equality of opportunity for all, ensuring that all existing and prospective members of staff are treated in a fair and equal manner regardless of the employee's age, disability, gender reassignment, gender identity, marriage / civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. The information provided on this form will be treated in the strictest confidence, and will not be seen by anyone within the organisation outside of the department responsible for the related post or project. Any information provided will be used for statistical analysis, including analysis in relation to diversity in recruitment practices, development opportunities, grading structures and geographical diversity. No data will be published or used in a way that allows an individual to be identified. Data relating to potential members of staff who are unsuccessful in gaining employment will be retained for a period of only 6 months, at which point it will be destroyed. Data relating to members of staff will be retained only for the period of their employment; once their employment has ended with the organisation, this data will be destroyed. Completion of this form is optional; please indicate in the relevant section above that you do or do not give your express permission for your personal data to be used only for the purposes stated.
